Director's Corner

December seems to have snuck up on us almost overnight. Please join us for the many wonderful activities we will be providing. I am excited that the library will be closing for the day on Wednesday, December 9 to provide our first ever staff in-service and training. We will be working on emergency procedures to keep our patrons and staff safe, as well as some customer service and team building exercises. Thank you for your patience while we learn to better serve you. —Erin Schmändt, Library Director
