Porcelain Paining with Mary (Ashcroft) Seehagen

On Thursday, August 25 at 6:30pm, Mary will bring her palette and some painted pieces, and tell us about how she got started painting porcelain and what it takes to complete a piece. If you love painted porcelain or are interested in the art of painting porcelain, come and join us for this free program with one of our area's finest porcelain artists! Drop in and bring a friend!

Tie Dye Workshop

Celebrate the end of the Summer Reading Program on Saturday, August 6 at 2:00pm with our Tie Dye Workshop. Bring your own white cotton item (shirt, socks, pillowcase, handkerchief, etc.) and we will teach you to make a work of art! Drop in.

Putting Your Garden to Bed

Learn how to put your garden to bed for the winter. The benefits and use of cover crops will be presented. Come and learn about how cover crops keep soil in place, gather up nutrients leftover from the previous gardening season and help prevent weeds. Hal Hudson from the MSU Extension Office will be presenting on Wednesday, August 24 at 6:00pm. Part of the Homegrown Foods Series. Registration requested.

BollyFit®

BollyFit® is a vibrant infusion of global music, dance moves, and mindful meditation for the body, mind, and soul! Bring along your family and friends to this drop in program on Tuesday, August 2 at 6:30pm, you won't want to miss it!

Director's Corner

Did you know that every pint of donated blood can save three lives? We are again hosting a Blood Drive for Michigan Blood on Monday, August 15 from 2p-7p. Please consider making an appointment. Aside from saving three lives, you will also be contributing to the library. Michigan Blood will make a donation to our children's programs for each donor. Call us at 673-4329 to set an appointment time. —Erin Schmändt, Library Director
