Cooking from Your Garden

On Wednesday, July 27 at 6:00pm Foodie Pam III will teach us to create Superbly Summer Salads --Michigan Cherry Salad, authentic Greek Salad, Tangerine and Herb salad (with a variety of fresh greens and edible flowers) and Sauerkraut Salad. You can create these great recipes from vegetables in your garden (you could always visit the farmer's market or local grocery store too). Join us for an evening of delicious food and fun! Registration required.

Family Game Night

Bring the whole family to the library on Thursday, July 14 at 6:00pm to learn to play great board games. We will be popping popcorn and supplying the games. Bring your family and your sense of humor. Drop in.

Introduction to Yoga: a class for beginners

If you have ever wanted to try yoga, but weren't sure what to expect, join Sue Kirby as she introduces us to yoga on Thursday, July 21 at 6:30pm in the Community Room. There are many benefits to the mind and body, when you practice yoga. The class will be limited to 12, and registration will be open starting July 5. Bring your yoga mat if you have one, if not one will be provided. For ages 18 and up! On your mark, get set.....relax!

Michigan's Most Remote Lighthouses

On his visit to Caro this time, Ric will be telling us about the most remote lighthouses in Michigan. What is it like to live and work on a remote lighthouse? Many of these sentinels are located far from civilization, built on islands and offshore reefs. As always Ric provides fascinating and informative information about awesome locations and structures in our great state of Michigan! Drop in on Tuesday, July 12 at 6:00pm and join us for this free program! You'll want to bring your friends and family along! On your mark, get set.....explore!

Director's Corner

Looking for something fun to do this summer? Use your library card to get free or discounted tickets to parks, museums, and attractions all over Michigan. The newest place to join is LEGOLAND Discovery Center at Great Lakes Crossing Mall. The Sea Life Aquarium at Great Lakes Crossing is also a participant. Go to michiganactivitypass.info and print out your tickets using your library card number!
