Summer Reading for Adults, Teens & Kids!

Summer reading kicks off on Monday, June 13. Kids can pick up a reading log in the Children's Area. They will receive a book and other prizes for completing their log. Adults and teens can enter prize drawings for each book they read all through the summer until August 8. Check out the green summer reading calendar to see all the great programs we will be having for kids, teens, and adults all through the summer as well.

Food Preservation: Canning & Freezing Part of the Homegrown Foods Series

Learn easy and safe ways to preserve the bounty of food that you grow at home. Led by an educator from the MSU Extension Office. Wednesday, June 22 at 6:00pm. Please call the library to register at 673-4329.

Ask a Lawyer

Do you have legal questions? Are you not sure whether you need an attorney or if you can do it yourself? Three local attorneys have volunteered their time to provide free 30 minute sessions on the following dates from 2pm-5pm to answer your questions. You must call (989) 673-4329 to register for an appointment.

June 16 - Attorney Rachel Pelto

Medicaid Planning/Probate/Wills & Trusts/
Estate Planning

June 23 - Attorney Phoebe Moore

Landlord-Tenant/Real Estate/Family Law/
Business Law

June 30 - Attorney Jason Bitzer

Bankruptcy/Nursing Home Qualification

Animals Around the World

Monkeys don't do push ups, dogs don't brush their teeth, and pandas don't do Pilates. Learn from animal behavior in this interactive adventure which features live mammals, reptiles, and amphibians. Wednesday, June 22 at 2:00pm. Drop in.

Director's Corner

Do you enjoy walking? I'm starting a Walking Club this summer. Meet me at the library at 12:15pm on Tuesdays starting June 14th. We've hopefully timed it just right that you can join us on your lunch hour. We will walk through the neighborhoods surrounding the library. I love my lunchtime walks and I am looking forward to sharing them with you.
