

Teen Lock-in Permission Slip

Friday, July 27th 9pm – Saturday, July 28th 7am

Rules:

- No abusive, threatening, or offensive behavior or language.
- Respect yourselves, others, and the Library's property.
- No tobacco, alcohol, drugs or weapons of any kind.
- Follow directions issued by library staff/chaperones and stay in the areas that are designated for the lock-in.
- Food and drinks are allowed in the Community Room only.
- Teens must check out with a staff member before they leave the library Saturday morning.

Teens 6th grade to 12th are invited to spend a night locked in the library. They are welcome to bring pillows, blankets, or sleeping bags. We will provide pizza, an escape room, video games, board games, and more. The teens are required to bring their own drinks. The participants will not be able to leave the library until 7:00am Saturday morning, except in the case of an emergency or illness.

As a participant of the Teen Lock-in I agree to follow the rules. My parents/legal guardian and I understand that if there are any issues with my behavior the library staff may contact my parent/legal guardian to pick me up at any time during the lock-in. I understand that photography or videos may be taken during the lock-in and used by the Caro Area District Library.
